

DANCE AROUND THE WORLD WITH

Learn circle, couple, and line dances from around the world. No partners needed — no experience necessary!

ATLANTA INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCERS

Enjoy dances from Western and Eastern Europe and the Balkans, Scandinavia, Israel and Turkey, the British Isles and the world over in a friendly, casual environment. Wonderful music with different sounds and rhythms. No partners (or experience) necessary at Atlanta's beginner/intermediate/advanced folk dancing groups. All three groups are non-profit, volunteer organizations.

Monday Nights ($5), 8:00 – 10:30 p.m. Teaching occasionally as needed.

At the DeKalb County Recreation Facility, 1340 McConnell Dr., off Clairmont Rd., north of Decatur. See the map on reverse side. For information, call Liz Nunan at 404-292-7176 or David Digby at 678-978-3663 or email ddigby@alumni.reed.edu.

GETTING THERE:

From I-85: Take the Clairmont Rd. exit. Go South off ramp onto Clairmont and continue about 2-3 miles. Cross the North Druid Hills Rd. intersection. Go to the next light = McConnell (just past the Golden Buddha Restaurant) and turn LEFT.

From Ponce de Leon or N. Decatur Rd.: Go to Clairmont Rd. Turn NORTH onto Clairmont and continue on about 1-1/2 miles. Pass the Veterans Hospital on the left, and go through the light at Mason Mill Rd. The next light will be McConnell. Turn RIGHT.

On McConnell Drive: At stop sign (bottom of the hill), turn RIGHT. The DeKalb County Recreation building is the first building on the left. There is plenty of parking. Enter across the bridge. We will be dancing in room 115, down the hall to your left.

Saturday Nights, usually on the second Saturday of the month from September – May (call to verify), Beginning class, 8:00 -9:00 p.m. Continuing 9:00 – 10:30 p.m. $5 per session at the Decatur School of Ballet, 102 Church St., Decatur 30030 (at the corner of Church and Howard Streets, across from the RR tracks.).
